GO

Therefore GO and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

We help individuals, organizations and churches GO by providing a place for them to STOP and get refreshed, renewed, restored, and, transformed.

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” —Matt. 28:18–20

Our mission is to PROCLAIM JESUS as Lord and Savior, TEACH the authoritative word of God, and SERVE HIS CHURCH
in our nation and throughout the world.

TO MAKE WHAT WE DO AMAZING

Lives Transformed.

*Mount Hermon helps grow faith of families
in a Christian vacation spot. They present Jesus and the Word of God
in ways that transform lives.*

A person is seen from behind, climbing a steep, rocky mountain slope. They are wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants, and are using a rope for assistance. The background shows a vast, hazy landscape with distant mountains and a body of water under a clear sky.

Mount Hermon is exceptional
at bringing people to Christ.
They're one of the best in the world at this.

ONE-ONE-ONE

A person wearing a blue robe stands on a riverbank, looking towards the water. In the foreground, several large, dark, rounded stones are scattered on the ground. The background shows a river with a small boat in the distance and a hilly landscape under a clear sky.

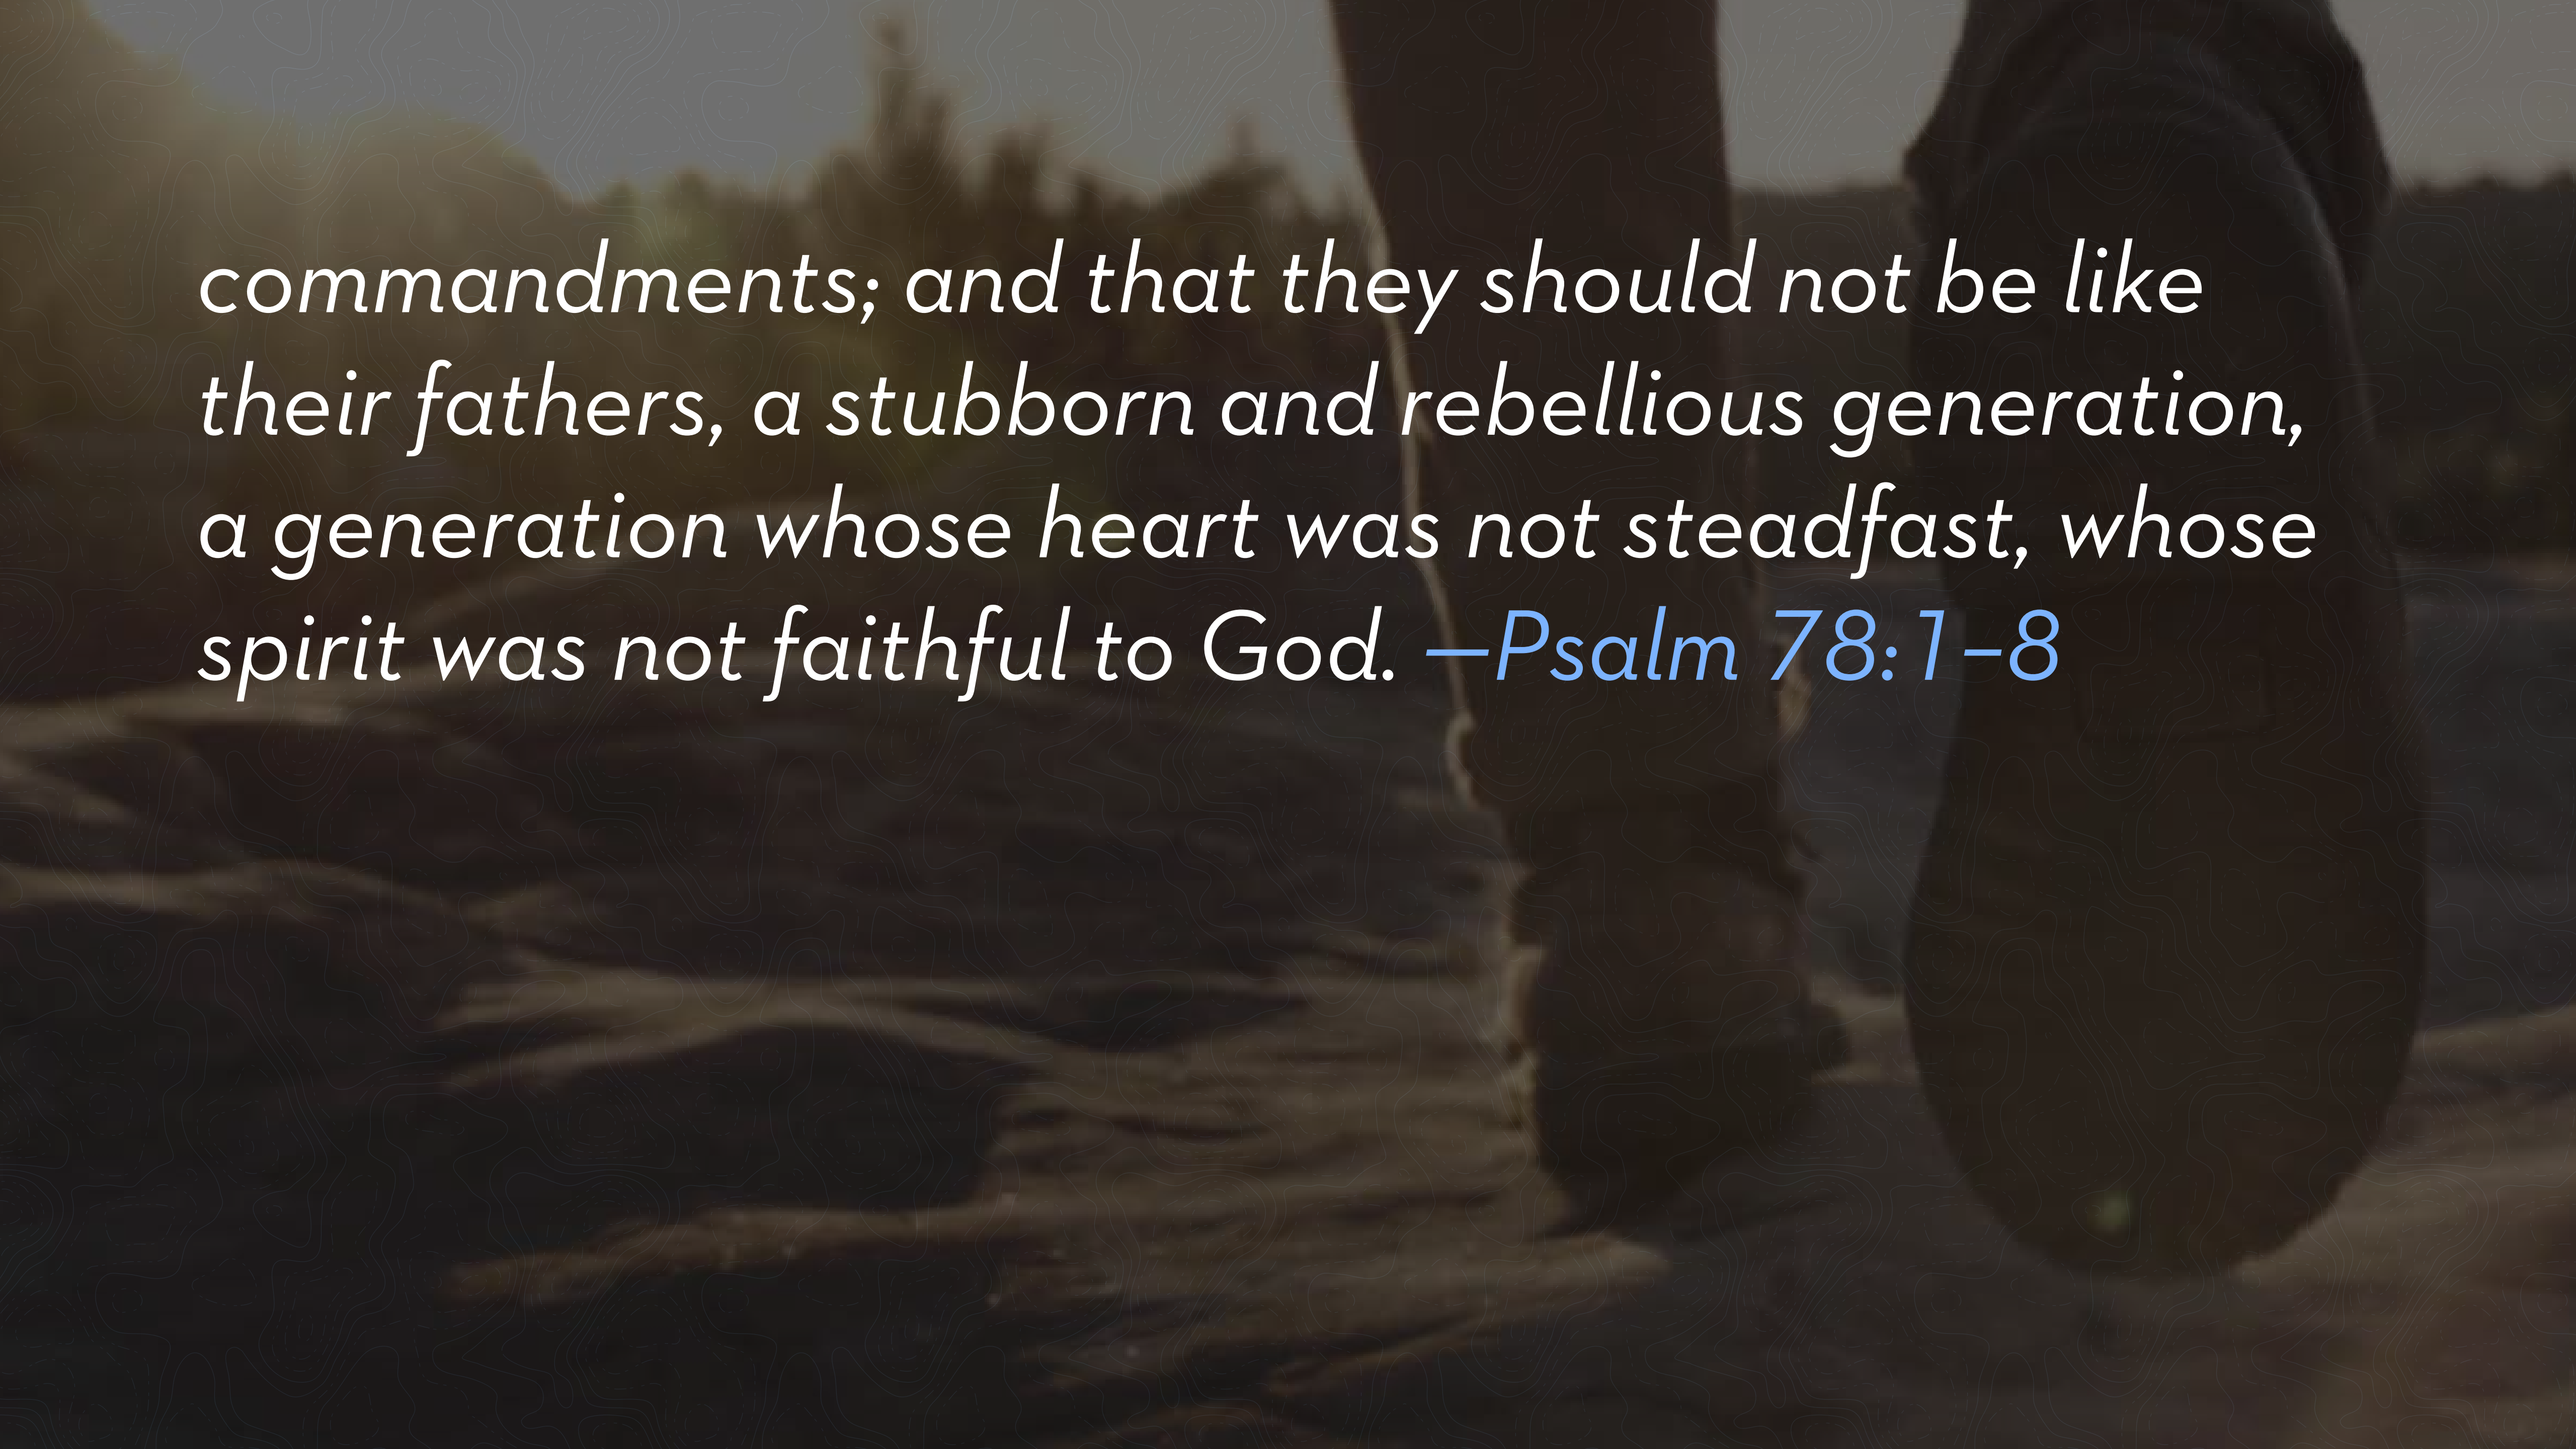

“When your children ask in time to come, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial forever.” —Joshua 4:6-7

Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done. He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children, that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God. —Psalm 78:1–8*

Hear this, you elders; give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers? Tell your children of it, and your children tell their children, and their children to another generation. —Joel 1:2-3
